

Toddler comments and questions:

Pointing to cross: "What does it do?"

Ruth holds a Bible up and asks what this is: "A question mark book?"

Ruth shows them a jar of ashes: "What is it, dirt? "I wanna touch it."

Question for Jesus: "Are unicorns real?"

1st-3rd grade comments and questions:

Why did Jesus have two fathers?

How did the Bible get made?

Who wrote the Bible anyway?

How many Bibles are in the entire world?

Why did people get mad at Jesus for sharing peace?

How did Jesus make so much food?

Is God a he or she?

"I looked up heaven on the internet. I know what it looks like."

"Heaven is way, way past space. All the way up. It would take like 5,000 years to get there."

Did Jesus sing?

Why do we sing in church?

Is there a difference between singing and praying?

How did God get made?

How is God magical?

Did dinosaurs exist before Adam and Eve?

Does God have a magical wand?

Did Adam and Eve have belly buttons?

Are there two Gods? God and Jesus?

Older children:

Questions for Jesus: How did you come back alive? Why is there war? Why are you so amazing?

How did Jesus and God become so powerful?

If God and Jesus were meaner, how would they use their power?

Cross: Why did they do it?

Why are there two testaments?

What is temptation?

What does God look like? Boy or Girl?

Could God stop all the bad stuff?

Is the theory of evolution real?

Why are there multiple stories told different ways?

If someone dies are they considered re-created? If so, what kind of recreation?

Why do Mennonites use a dove symbol?

What was Jesus afraid of?

New questions:

How was the first food made?

What was the first food on earth?